

DotBike

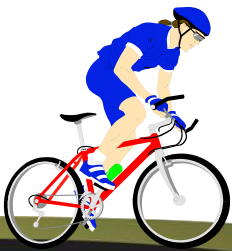

Dorchester Commuter-Home Bike Ride Wednesday March 12th

Meeting Point 1 - 5:30: Boston Common, by the fountain near Park Street station
Meeting Point 2 - 6:00: Parking Lot of Mother Theresa of Calcutta Church (corner Dot and Columbia)
Meeting Point 3 - 6:30 Vietnamese Community Center, 42 Charles Street (behind Fields Corner station)
End Point: Dorchester Ave. in Lower Mills (back right of Tedeschi's Parking Lot)

This is a ride to meet fellow Dorchester cyclists while having fun participating in the activity that has brought DotBike together. We'll raise driver awareness of the bicyclists sharing the roads of Dorchester.

Riders can join or drop off the ride at any point along the route and we plan to ride together as a group obeying all traffic regulations so no one will be dropped.

Join Us Wednesday
March 12th

Rain Date Thursday March 13th

DotBike is a community of cyclists who promote increased awareness, opportunity, and safety for bicycling in Dorchester through advocacy and bicycling events. We strive to encourage and support commuter, recreational, sport and working cyclists in Dorchester.

For more information on this ride, future events and DotBike monthly meetings visit <http://dotbike.bostonbiker.org>.